

Title V

Title V Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) is a federally funded job training program for mature workers. Program participants gain work experience through subsidized training and then transition to unsubsidized jobs.

New Title V participants must be:

- 55 years old or older
- King County residents, including Seattle
- Unemployed and low income

Eligible workers are placed in jobs with employers who are registered with the Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens.

Title V participants work 15 to 25 hours a week.

To make an appointment, call (206) 684-0500 between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. weekdays.

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

810 - 3rd Avenue, Suite 350
(The Central Building)
Seattle, WA 98104

Monday–Friday
8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

TEL (206) 684-0500
FAX (206) 615-0980
TTY/TDD (206) 233-2778
seniors@seattle.gov

www.seattle.gov/seniors

The Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens, administered by the Seattle Human Services Department, complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws prohibiting discrimination.

Accommodations for persons with disabilities will be provided upon request.

City of Seattle
Mike McGinn, Mayor

Human Services Department
Aging & Disability Services
Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

Age 55+ Employment Resource Center

City of Seattle
Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens
Mike McGinn, Mayor

Age 55+ Employment Resource Center

The Age 55+ Employment Resource Center helps older workers find jobs.

The Center also finds training for older job seekers who need to upgrade their job skills. Each year, hundreds of Age 55+ Employment Resource Center clients receive job placements. Services are free to both job seekers and employers.

Services for the Age 55+ job seeker include:

- Employer outreach
- Training resources, including computer classes
- Computer access for resumé writing and Internet research
- Job coaching
- Monthly employment workshops
- Job listings
- Web site: www.seattle.gov/seniors

The Age 55+ Employment Resource Center provides support for the older worker. One-on-one job counseling is provided by a peer counselor — someone who has “been there” and understands.

Businesses throughout Seattle and King County can recruit employees through the Age 55+ Employment Resource Center. Call the Age 55+ Employment Resource Center for referrals of experienced, dedicated, and reliable job applicants.

